DECLARATION OF DISASTER FOR THE CITY OF LIVINGSTON, TEXAS

The City of Livingston is in the forecast track cone of uncertainty for Tropical Storm Beryl forecasted to strengthen to a hurricane and make landfall early Monday, July 8, 2024. The City of Livingston experienced severe weather and flooding, creating severe property damage and dangerous conditions in April and May 2024 and is still recovering from this disaster. Therefore, Mayor Judy B. Cochran has issued an Emergency Declaration for Livingston as of 12:30 P.M., Sunday, July 7, 2024.

Mayor Cochran has determined that extraordinary measures must be taken to alleviate the suffering of people and to protect or rehabilitate property. Therefore, a state of disaster is declared for the City of Livingston, Texas, pursuant to 418.108(a) of the Texas Government Code. This declaration of a local state of disaster shall activate the local emergency management plan. The state of disaster shall continue for a period of not more than seven days from the date hereof, unless the same is continued by consent of the Livingston City Council.
